UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

PARTEC AG and BF EXAQC AG,

Plaintiffs,

v.

MICROSOFT CORPORATION,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 2:24-cv-433

PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs ParTec AG and BF exaQC AG (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), and Defendant Microsoft Corporation, hereafter referred to as “the Parties,” believe that certain information that is or will be encompassed by discovery demands by the Parties in the above-captioned action involves the production or disclosure of trade secrets, confidential business information, or other proprietary information;

WHEREAS, the Parties seek a Protective Order limiting disclosure thereof in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c);

THEREFORE, it is hereby stipulated among the Parties and ORDERED that:

1. Each Party may designate as confidential for protection under this Order, in whole or in part, any document, information or material that constitutes or includes, in whole or in part, confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of the Party or a Third Party to whom the Party reasonably believes it owes an obligation of confidentiality with respect to such document, information or material (“Protected Material”). Protected Material shall be designated by the Party producing it by affixing a legend or stamp on such document, information or material as follows: “CONFIDENTIAL,” “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “RESTRICTED

CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE.” The words “CONFIDENTIAL,” “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE” shall be placed clearly on each page of the Protected Material (except deposition and hearing transcripts) for which such protection is sought. For deposition and hearing transcripts, the word “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be placed on the cover page of the transcript (if not already present on the cover page of the transcript when received from the court reporter) by each attorney receiving a copy of the transcript after that attorney receives notice of the designation of some or all of that transcript as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2. Any document produced before issuance of this Order with the designation “CONFIDENTIAL” or the like shall receive the same treatment as if designated “CONFIDENTIAL” under this order and any such documents produced with the designation “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or the like shall receive the same treatment as if designated “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” under this Order, unless and until such document is redesignated to have a different classification under this Order.

3. With respect to documents, information or material designated “CONFIDENTIAL,” “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE” (“DESIGNATED MATERIAL”),¹ subject to the provisions herein and unless otherwise stated, this Order governs, without limitation: (a) all documents, electronically stored information, and/or things as defined by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; (b) all pretrial, hearing or deposition testimony, or documents marked as exhibits or for identification in depositions and hearings; (c) pretrial pleadings, exhibits to pleadings and other court filings; (d) affidavits; (e) discovery responses, including answers to interrogatories and to requests for admission; and (f) stipulations. All copies, reproductions, extracts, digests, and complete or partial summaries prepared from any DESIGNATED MATERIALS shall also be considered DESIGNATED MATERIAL and treated as such under this Order.

4. A designation of Protected Material (i.e., “CONFIDENTIAL,” “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE”) may be made at any time. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents, information or material that has not been designated as DESIGNATED MATERIAL shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a claim for confidential treatment. Any Party that inadvertently or unintentionally produces Protected Material without designating it as DESIGNATED MATERIAL may request destruction of that Protected Material by notifying the recipient(s), as soon as reasonably possible after the producing Party becomes aware of the inadvertent or unintentional disclosure, and providing replacement Protected Material that is properly designated. The recipient(s) shall then destroy all copies of the inadvertently or unintentionally produced Protected Materials and any documents, information or material derived from or based thereon.

5. “CONFIDENTIAL” documents, information and material may be disclosed only to the following persons, except upon receipt of the prior written consent of the designating Party, upon order of the Court, or as set forth in paragraph 12 herein:

- a. outside counsel of record in this Action for the Parties;
- b. employees of such outside counsel assigned to and reasonably necessary to assist such counsel in the litigation of this Action;
- c. in-house counsel for the Parties who either have responsibility for making decisions dealing directly with the litigation of this Action, or who are assisting outside counsel in the litigation of this Action, and their employed support staff who are reasonably necessary to assist such counsel in the litigation of this Action;

- d. up to and including three (3) designated representatives of each of the Parties to the extent reasonably necessary for the litigation of this Action, except that either Party may in good faith request the other Party's consent to designate one or more additional representatives, the other Party shall not unreasonably withhold such consent, and the requesting Party may seek leave of Court to designate such additional representative(s) if the requesting Party believes the other Party has unreasonably withheld such consent;
 - e. outside consultants or experts (i.e., not existing employees or affiliates of a Party) retained for the purpose of this litigation, provided that: (1) such consultants or experts are not presently employed by the Parties hereto or their affiliates for purposes other than this Action; and (2) before access is given, the consultant or expert has completed the Undertaking attached as Appendix A hereto and the same is served upon the producing Party with a current curriculum vitae of the consultant or expert, including a list of other cases in which the individual has provided a report or testified (at trial or deposition) and a list of companies that the individual has been employed by or provided consulting services pertaining to the field of the invention of the patents-in-suit or the products accused of infringement within the last four years and a brief description of the subject matter of the consultancy or employment, at least ten (10) days before access to the Protected Material is to be given to that consultant or expert to object to and notify the receiving Party in writing that it objects to disclosure of Protected Material to the consultant or expert. The Parties agree to promptly confer and use good faith to resolve any such objection. If the Parties are unable to resolve any objection, the objecting Party may file a motion with the Court within five (5) days of the notice, or within such other time as the Parties may agree, seeking a protective order with respect to the proposed disclosure. The objecting Party shall have the burden of proving the need for a protective order. In the event of such a dispute, no disclosure shall occur until all such objections are resolved by agreement or Court order;
 - f. independent litigation support services, including persons working for or as court reporters, graphics or design services, jury or trial consulting services including mock jurors and supporting personnel, and photocopy, document imaging, file hosting, and database services retained by counsel and reasonably necessary to assist counsel with the litigation of this Action; and
 - g. the Court and mediators, and their personnel.
6. A Party shall designate documents, information or material as "CONFIDENTIAL" only upon a good faith belief that the documents, information or material contains confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of the Party or a Third Party to whom the Party reasonably believes it owes an obligation of confidentiality with respect to such documents, information or material.

7. Documents, information or material produced in this Action, including but not limited to Protected Material designated as DESIGNATED MATERIAL (i) shall be used by the Parties only in this litigation for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action; (ii) shall not be used for any other purpose, and (iii) shall not be disclosed to any person who is not entitled to receive such Protected Material as herein provided. All produced Protected Material shall be carefully maintained so as to preclude access by persons who are not entitled to receive such Protected Material, and any person or entity who obtains access to DESIGNATED MATERIAL or the contents thereof pursuant to this Order shall not make any copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions of such DESIGNATED MATERIAL or any portion thereof except as may be reasonably necessary in the litigation of this Action. Any such copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions shall be classified DESIGNATED MATERIALS and subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Order.

8. To the extent a producing Party believes in good faith that certain Protected Material qualifying to be designated CONFIDENTIAL is so sensitive that its dissemination deserves even further limitation, the producing Party may designate such Protected Material “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or to the extent such Protected Material includes computer source code (e.g., programming language and/or hardware description language) (“Source Code Material”), the producing Party may designate such Protected Material as “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE”. A document that merely quotes or cites filenames, line numbers, directory names, module names, class names, parameter names, variable names, function names, method names, and/or procedure names (e.g., for notetaking or identification purposes) without reproducing any lines of source code need not be designated “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE” but should be designated “RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

9. For Protected Material designated RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY, access to, and disclosure of, such Protected Material shall be limited to individuals listed in paragraphs 5(a–b) and (e–g). Nothing in this paragraph 9 precludes outside counsel for a Party from informing their client(s) designated under Section 5(d) and who agree to be bound by this Protective Order of high-level damages estimates, solely to aid in settlement discussions or mediation and advise on damages models, so long as no information designated RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY is revealed.

10. For Protected Material designated RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE, access to, and disclosure of, such Protected Material shall be limited to individuals listed in paragraphs 5(a-b) and (e-g). The following additional restrictions apply for Protected Material designated RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE:

- a. Access to a Party’s (including a Third Party’s) Source Code Material shall be provided only on “stand-alone” computer(s) (that is, the computer(s) may not be linked to any network, including a local area network (“LAN”), an intranet or the Internet) (“Source Code Computers”). The Source Code Computers may be connected to a printer, however, all printing shall be performed by the producing Party or the Producing Party’s outside counsel, upon request by the receiving Party or the receiving Party’s reviewer(s). For purposes of this provision, any printout consisting of less than 25 consecutive pages or less than 300 total pages is presumed reasonable as of the filing of this document, and any request for additional pages is subject to a showing by the receiving Party of good cause. The Source Code Computers may only be located at one of the offices of the producing Party’s outside counsel, or other location(s) mutually agreed upon by the producing Party and the receiving Party, in a room where the receiving Party’s outside counsel, consultants, and experts can review the Source Code Material in private. A mouse, keyboard, and a display screen or monitor of a size of at least twenty-three inches shall be provided by the producing Party for each stand-alone computer on which Source Code Material is produced. The hardware and software specifications of the stand-alone computer(s) (e.g., processor speed, RAM, operating system, and monitor) shall be commensurate with that of computers used by the producing Party to work with source code in the ordinary course of business. During their review of produced Source Code Material, the receiving Party's outside counsel and experts may take handwritten notes or notes on a notetaking laptop without camera functionalities or camera functionalities disabled or blocked that cannot connect to the Internet relating to the Source Code Material, but may not copy any line of Source Code Material into the notes; however, function names, variable names, parameter names, and other individual identifiers derived from Source Code, do not, by themselves, constitute a line of Source Code Material. Any notes relating to the Source Code will be treated as "RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." The receiving Party shall be able to copy the notes from the note taking laptop onto a recordable device at the end of each day of inspection under the supervision of the producing Party. Other electronic devices, including personal cell phones, shall not be permitted in the rooms with the standalone computer(s) and connected printer(s);

- b. The receiving Party shall make reasonable efforts to restrict its requests for such access to the Source Code Computers to normal business hours, which for purposes of this paragraph shall be 8:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m. local time where the Source Code Computers are located. However, upon reasonable notice from the receiving Party, the producing Party shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the receiving Party's request for access to the Source Code Computers outside of normal business hours. The Parties agree to cooperate in good faith such that maintaining the producing Party's Source Code Material at the offices of its outside counsel shall not unreasonably hinder the receiving Party's ability to efficiently and effectively conduct the prosecution or defense of this Action;
- c. The Party requesting to inspect source code shall provide notice to the producing Party of its request five (5) business days in advance of the first requested inspection, absent circumstances warranting good cause for a shorter notice, and two (2) business days in advance of each subsequent requested inspection, absent circumstances warranting good cause for shorter notice. In advance of the inspection, the receiving Party will identify the individual(s) who will be reviewing the source code, as well as the anticipated hours of the review;
- d. The producing Party shall provide the receiving Party with information explaining how to start, log on to, and operate the Source Code Computers in order to access the produced Source Code Material on the Source Code Computers;
- e. The reviewing Party or its expert(s) shall not attempt to circumvent the security of the Source Code Computers or confidentiality of the Source Code Material displayed. A telephone and internet access will be provided in a breakout room convenient to and near the source code review room—i.e., a room in close proximity to the source code review room; a reviewer shall be permitted to access the internet and use a personal cell phone in that room. The receiving Party shall not be permitted to bring the Source Code Computer from the review room into the breakout room.

- f. The producing Party may maintain a daily log of the names of persons who enter the designated facility to view the materials and when they enter and depart. The producing Party shall be entitled to have a person observe all entrances and exits from the reviewing room, but entrances and exits only, not the review itself. All access to the source code shall be maintained on a source code Access Log identifying, for each and every time any source code is viewed, accessed, or analyzed: (1) the name of each person who accessed the code; (2) the date and time of access; and (3) the date and time at which such access ended;
- g. The receiving Party may request that the producing Party install certain licensed software that are not code editors, compilers, interpreters, or simulators on the Source Code Computers to assist with review of the producing Party's Source Code Material. Such request shall be subject to the approval of the producing Party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. To allow the producing Party reasonable time to prepare the Source Code Computers, the receiving Party must provide the producing Party the computer medium (e.g., CD, DVD, USB drive, or FTP) containing the requested software tools at least five (5) days in advance of the inspection. The producing Party will install and confirm installation of said software on the Source Code Computers prior to the date the receiving Party seeks access;
- h. The producing Party will produce Source Code Material in computer searchable format on the Source Code Computers as described above. The receiving Party's outside counsel and/or experts shall have access to the same source code review software and tools as provided to the producing Party's outside counsel and/or experts when reviewing source code. In addition, the producing Party and the producing Party's expert(s) will be subject to the same printing restrictions as that of the receiving Party. Finally, the producing Party will not send to anyone any removable electronic media (e.g., a DVD, CD-ROM, or flash memory "stick") or computers containing source code;
- i. Access to Protected Material designated RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE shall be limited to outside counsel and up to three (3) outside consultants or experts² (i.e., not existing employees or affiliates of a Party or competitor of the producing Party) retained for the purpose of this litigation and approved to access such Protected Materials pursuant to the Protective Order applicable to this Action;
- j. A receiving Party may include excerpts of Source Code Material in a pleading,

² For the purposes of this paragraph, an outside consultant or expert is defined to include the outside consultant's or expert's direct reports and other support personnel, such that the disclosure to a consultant or expert who employs others within his or her firm to help in his or analysis shall count as a disclosure to a single consultant or expert.

- exhibit, expert report, discovery document, deposition transcript, or other Court document (“Source Code Documents”), provided that the Source Code Documents are appropriately marked under this Order, restricted to those who are entitled to have access to them as specified herein, and, if filed with the Court, filed under seal in accordance with the Court’s rules, procedures and orders;
- k. To the extent portions of Source Code Material are quoted in a Source Code Document, either (1) the entire Source Code Document will be stamped and treated as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE or (2) those pages containing quoted Source Code Material will be separately stamped and treated as RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE;
 - l. Except as set forth herein or unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties, no electronic copies of Source Code Material shall be made without prior written consent of the producing Party, except as necessary to create documents which, pursuant to the Court’s rules, procedures and order, must be filed or served electronically;
 - m. The receiving Party shall be permitted up four printouts or photocopies of Source Code Material, all of which shall be requested from and printed by the producing Party on paper bearing Bates numbers and the legend “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE.” Any printouts or photocopies of Source Code Material must be made on colored (i.e., non-white) paper. Within three business days of the request for printouts or photocopies, the producing Party shall provide up to three (3) copy sets of such pages to the receiving Party;
 - n. Should such printouts or photocopies be transferred back to electronic media, such media shall be labeled “RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE” and shall continue to be treated as such;
 - o. If the receiving Party’s outside counsel, consultants, or experts obtain printouts or photocopies of Source Code Material, the receiving Party shall ensure that such outside counsel, consultants, or experts keep the printouts or photocopies in a secured locked area in the offices of such outside counsel, consultants, or expert. The receiving Party may also temporarily keep the printouts or photocopies at: (i) the Court for any proceeding(s) relating to the Source Code Material, for the dates associated with the proceeding(s); (ii) the sites where any deposition(s) relating to the Source Code Material are taken, for the dates associated with the deposition(s); and (iii) any intermediate location reasonably necessary to transport the printouts or photocopies (e.g., a hotel prior to a Court proceeding or deposition); and
 - p. A producing Party’s Source Code Material may only be transported by the receiving Party at the direction of a person authorized under paragraph 10(i) above to another person authorized under paragraph 10(i) above, on paper via hand carry, Federal Express, or other similarly reliable courier. Source Code Material may not be transported or transmitted electronically over a network of any kind, including a LAN, an intranet, or the Internet. Source Code Material may only be transported electronically for the purpose of Court proceeding(s) or deposition(s) as set forth in paragraph 10(o) above and is at all times subject to the transport restrictions set forth herein. But, for those purposes only, the Source Code Materials may be loaded onto a stand-alone computer without prior consent from the producing Party or as necessary to file with the Court or serve documents which, pursuant to the Court's rules, procedures and order, must be filed or served electronically under seal.

11. Any attorney representing a Party, whether in-house or outside counsel, and any person who is both associated with a Party and permitted to receive the other Party's Protected Material that is designated RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY and/or RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE (collectively, "HIGHLY SENSITIVE MATERIAL"), who obtains, receives, has access to, or otherwise learns, in whole or in part, the other Party's HIGHLY SENSITIVE MATERIAL under this Order shall not prepare, prosecute, supervise, or assist in the preparation or prosecution of any patent application pertaining to the field of the invention of the patents-in-suit, the field of cluster computer systems, or the field of AI infrastructure on behalf of the receiving Party or its acquirer, successor, predecessor, or other affiliate during the pendency of this Action and for one year after its conclusion, including any appeals. To ensure compliance with the purpose of this provision, each Party shall create an "Ethical Wall" between those persons with access to HIGHLY SENSITIVE MATERIAL and any individuals who prepare, prosecute, supervise or assist in the preparation or prosecution of any patent application pertaining to the field of the invention of the patents-in-suit, the field of cluster computer systems, or the field of AI infrastructure. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a person with access to HIGHLY SENSITIVE MATERIAL from participating in a PTO proceeding, e.g., IPR or PGR, except for that person shall not participate—directly or indirectly—in the amendment of any claim(s).

12. Nothing in this Order shall require production of documents, information or other material that a Party contends is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or other privilege, doctrine, or immunity. If documents, information or other material subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or other privilege, doctrine, or immunity is inadvertently or unintentionally produced, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d), such production shall in no way prejudice or otherwise constitute a waiver of, or estoppel as to, any such privilege, doctrine, or immunity in this or any other federal, state, local or administrative proceeding. Any Party that inadvertently or unintentionally produces documents, information or other material it reasonably believes are protected under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or other privilege, doctrine, or immunity may obtain the return or destruction of such documents, information or other material by promptly notifying the recipient(s) and providing a privilege log for the inadvertently or unintentionally produced documents, information or other material. The recipient(s) shall, within five (5) days of being notified, gather and return or destroy all copies of such documents, information, or other material to the producing Party, except for any pages containing privileged or otherwise protected markings by the recipient(s), which pages shall instead be destroyed and certified as such to the producing Party. The receiving Party may move the Court for an Order compelling production of such information, but the motion shall not assert as a ground for production the fact or circumstances of the inadvertent or unintentional production. If a claim is disputed, the receiving Party shall not use or disclose a document or information for which a claim of privilege or immunity is made pursuant to this Paragraph for any purpose until the matter is resolved by agreement of the parties or by a decision of this Court.

13. There shall be no disclosure of any DESIGNATED MATERIAL by any person authorized to have access thereto to any person who is not authorized for such access under this Order. The Parties are hereby ORDERED to safeguard all such documents, information and material to protect against disclosure to any unauthorized persons or entities.

14. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prejudice any Party's right to use any DESIGNATED MATERIAL in taking testimony at any deposition or hearing provided that the DESIGNATED MATERIAL is only disclosed to a person(s) who is: (i) eligible to have access to the DESIGNATED MATERIAL by virtue of his or her employment with the designating Party, (ii) identified in the DESIGNATED MATERIAL as an author, addressee, or copy recipient of such information, (iii) although not identified as an author, addressee, or copy recipient of such DESIGNATED MATERIAL, has, in the ordinary course of business, seen such DESIGNATED MATERIAL, (iv) a current or former officer, director or employee of the producing Party or a current or former officer, director or employee of a company affiliated with the producing Party; (v) counsel for a Party, including outside counsel and in-house counsel (subject to paragraph 9 of this Order); (vi) an independent contractor, consultant, and/or expert retained for the purpose of this litigation; (vii) court reporters and videographers; (viii) the Court; or (ix) other persons entitled hereunder to access to DESIGNATED MATERIAL. DESIGNATED MATERIAL shall not be disclosed to any other persons unless prior authorization is obtained from counsel representing the producing Party or from the Court.

15. Parties may, at the deposition or hearing or within thirty (30) days after receipt of a deposition or hearing transcript, designate the deposition or hearing transcript or any portion thereof as "CONFIDENTIAL," "RESTRICTED - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," or "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE" pursuant to this Order. Access to the deposition or hearing transcript so designated shall be limited in accordance with the terms of this Order. Until expiration of the 30-day period, the entire deposition or hearing transcript shall be treated as RESTRICTED - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY.

16. The existence of this Protective Order must be disclosed to any person producing documents, tangible things, or testimony in this action who may reasonably be expected to desire confidential treatment for such documents, tangible things, or testimony. Any such person or any Party may designate documents, tangible things, or testimony confidential pursuant to this Protective Order.

17. Any DESIGNATED MATERIAL that is filed with the Court shall be filed under seal and shall remain under seal until further order of the Court. The filing Party shall be responsible for informing the Clerk of the Court that the filing should be sealed and for placing the legend "FILED UNDER SEAL PURSUANT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" above the caption and conspicuously on each page of the filing. Exhibits to a filing shall conform to the labeling requirements set forth in this Order. If a pretrial pleading filed with the Court, or an exhibit thereto, discloses or relies on DESIGNATED MATERIAL, such confidential portions shall be redacted to the extent necessary and the pleading or exhibit filed publicly with the Court.

18. The Order applies to pretrial discovery. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to prevent the Parties from introducing any DESIGNATED MATERIAL into evidence at the trial of this Action, or from using any information contained in DESIGNATED MATERIAL at the trial of this Action, subject to any pretrial order issued by this Court.

19. A Party may request in writing to the other Party that the designation given to any DESIGNATED MATERIAL be modified or withdrawn. If the designating Party does not agree to redesignation within ten (10) days of receipt of the written request, the requesting Party may apply to the Court for relief. Upon any such application to the Court, the burden shall be on the designating Party to show why its classification is proper. Such application shall be treated procedurally as a motion to compel pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 37, subject to the Rule's provisions relating to sanctions. In making such application, the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Court shall be met. Pending the Court's determination of the application, the designation of the designating Party shall be maintained.

20. Each outside consultant or expert to whom DESIGNATED MATERIAL is disclosed in accordance with the terms of this Order shall be advised by counsel of the terms of this Order, shall be informed that he or she is subject to the terms and conditions of this Order, and shall sign an acknowledgment that he or she has received a copy of, has read, and has agreed to be bound by this Order. A copy of the acknowledgment form is attached as Appendix A.

21. To the extent that any discovery is taken of persons who are not Parties to this Action ("Third Parties") and in the event that such Third Parties contend the discovery sought involves trade secrets, confidential business information, or other proprietary information, then such Third Parties may agree to be bound by this Order.

22. To the extent that discovery or testimony is taken of Third Parties, the Third Parties may designate as "CONFIDENTIAL", "RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY", or "RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE" any documents, information or other material, in whole or in part, produced, given, or made available for inspection by such Third Parties. The Third Parties shall have ten (10) days after production of such documents, information or other materials to make such a designation. Until that time period lapses or until such a designation has been made, whichever occurs sooner, all documents, information or other material so produced or given shall be treated as "RESTRICTED – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" in accordance with this Order.

23. The provisions of this Order shall continue to be binding after final termination of this case until a producing Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs.

Within sixty (60) days of final termination of this Action, including any appeals, all DESIGNATED MATERIAL, including all copies, duplicates, abstracts, indexes, summaries, descriptions, and excerpts or extracts thereof (excluding excerpts or extracts incorporated into any privileged memoranda of the Parties and materials which have been admitted into evidence in this Action), shall at the producing Party's election either be returned to the producing Party or be destroyed. The receiving Party shall verify the return or destruction by affidavit furnished to the producing Party, upon the producing Party's request. However, notwithstanding this requirement, Outside Counsel may retain copies of all court filings, pleadings, motions and trial briefs (including all supporting and opposing papers and exhibits thereto), written discovery requests and responses (and exhibits thereto), deposition transcripts (and exhibits thereto), trial transcripts, attorney work product, communications, and exhibits offered or introduced into evidence at any hearing or trial for archival purposes. Any such archived copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Order and shall be maintained in confidence by outside counsel for the Party retaining the materials. Any destruction obligations under this Protective Order shall not apply to electronically-stored information in archival form stored on backup tapes or computer servers that are created only for disaster recovery purposes, provided that such electronic archives are not used as reference materials for a receiving Party's business operations.

24. The failure to designate documents, information or material in accordance with this Order and the failure to object to a designation at a given time shall not preclude the later designation of such documents, information, or material, or the filing of a motion at a later date seeking to impose such designation or challenging the propriety thereof. The entry of this Order and/or the production of documents, information and material hereunder shall in no way constitute a waiver of any objection to the furnishing thereof, all such objections being hereby preserved.

25. Absent the agreement of the Parties or an Order of the Court, outside consultants or experts of authorized under paragraph 10(i) may access RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE in the United States only, and may not transport RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE or access RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE from any foreign jurisdiction, except that, outside counsel of a Party may access RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE when traveling or working abroad temporarily. Further, absent the agreement of the Parties or an Order of the Court, RESTRICTED CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE CODE may not be released to any foreign national even within the United States unless the foreign national is (1) lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States (i.e., issued a Green Card), (2) lawfully permitted to work in the United States (i.e., issued an H-1B visa), or (3) granted status as a protected person under 8 U.S.C. § 1324b(a)(3).

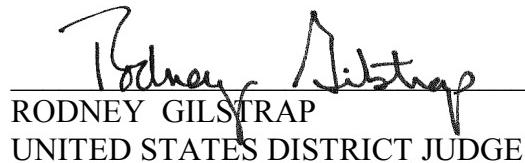

26. Any Party knowing or believing that any other Party is in violation of or intends to violate this Order and has raised the question of violation or potential violation with the opposing Party and has been unable to resolve the matter by agreement may move the Court for such relief as may be appropriate in the circumstances. Pending disposition of the motion by the Court, the Party alleged to be in violation of or intending to violate this Order shall discontinue the performance of and/or shall not undertake the further performance of any action alleged to constitute a violation of this Order.

27. Production of DESIGNATED MATERIAL by each of the Parties shall not be deemed a publication of the documents, information and material (or the contents thereof) produced so as to void or make voidable whatever claim the Parties may have as to the proprietary and confidential nature of the documents, information or other material or its contents.

28. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to effect an abrogation, waiver or limitation of any kind on the rights of each of the Parties to assert any applicable discovery or trial privilege.

29. Each of the Parties shall also retain the right to file a motion with the Court (a) to modify this Order to allow disclosure of DESIGNATED MATERIAL to additional persons or entities if reasonably necessary to prepare and present this Action and (b) to apply for additional protection of DESIGNATED MATERIAL.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 10th day of October, 2024.
